to conscription now being taken, but this realisation has not so far adversely affected conditions at Throgmorton street. Markets to-day were still feeling the benefit of recent big dividend disbursements, a larger proportion of which than usual is estimated to be available for investment.

Consols rose § to 59, but the Old War Loan was unchanged, and the § p.c. Loan flattened § to 97½. Colonial Scrips were mostly dull. Indian Government issues did not move on balance. 2§ p.c. Childers fell §, but the 2§ p.c.'s were § up. Bank of England Stock and the Irish Land Loan were unaltered.

ITS ASSISTANCE TO ARTISTS AND SCULPTORS.

Under the auspices of the Photographic Society of Ireland an interesting and instructive lecture was delivered last evening in the Engineers' Hall, 35 Dawnon street, Dublin, by Mr. Alfred Werner, F.R.P.S., who dealt is length with some of the developments in photography during the past half-century. He particularised the mechanical improvements which had been effected in the camera and which made the beautiful artistic and mosthetic photography of the present day possible. He instanced how artists and sculptors had recognised the artistic value of photography, and had become better artists and sculptors in consequence, and decayed deray which were of particular interest to photographers.
